In 1 Samuel 8, we read of Israel's demand for a king so " that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles."
(1 Samuel 8:20)

God allowed Israel to have a king and so began a long succession of kings who ruled over God's people. Most of these kings did not follow God and the nation suffered, but there are a few who were known as good or godly kings.

What did they do different?
What can we learn from them in how we live our lives today?
